1. Summer Programming: many happy customers this summer. I was telling my husband how glad I was to have participated. Thanks so much and I look forward to future programs.

3. Book Sale Prep: Donations are starting to come in and there is an ongoing booksale area setup near the public computers. Storage space is still a complication as we try to clean everything out of that room that isn't book sale related. One of the big things is all of the boxes that we saved from the book storage. We may have to reevaluate keeping all of them.
